

A large, bold, black uppercase letter 'A' is centered on a light gray background. The background features a grid of thin, light gray lines, including a vertical line through the center, a horizontal line through the middle of the letter, and two diagonal lines forming an 'X' shape. The letter 'A' is composed of three thick, black strokes: two diagonal strokes meeting at a point at the top, and a horizontal crossbar connecting them. The letter is perfectly centered within the grid.
